

FIRST HOUR

Parish Reply Bench

Named buyer: Helen, 52, church office volunteer. She opens the shared inbox at 8:40 on Monday and freezes on the first unanswered parent note. Job to be done: send one finished reply before 9:15 without drafting from a blank box. Price: $15 a month. This file is the week. It is not a listing.

Rule

One card. One subject. Four lines or fewer. Send from the shared desk address, not from Helen's name. If the note is not one of these seven shapes, the reply is NONE and the note waits for the minister. Do not open a second thread. Do not apologise for the delay.

First hour today

It is Tuesday 6 October. Skip Monday. Paste the allergy-note reply into the first matching message. Send. Stop. The other six cards wait in the folder until their shape appears.

MONDAY 5 OCT — LATE PICKUPSubject: Late pickup Tuesday*INBOUND SHAPE

Helen — we may be ten minutes past the gate on Tuesday. Can someone stay with Sam?

PASTE

Yes. Sam can wait with the duty parent at the gate until 3:25. If you are later than that, reply to this same thread and we will call you. No new arrangement today.

BAN: no emoji, no “just circling back”, no new address, no promise of a phone call you have not already made.

TUESDAY 6 OCT — ALLERGY NOTESubject: Allergy note received*INBOUND SHAPE

Please make sure the snack table has nothing with nuts. Mia reacts.

PASTE

Received. The snack table this week is fruit and plain crackers. Please send Mia's own cup if she needs a drink other than water. We will not add a special table.

BAN: no emoji, no “just circling back”, no new address, no promise of a phone call you have not already made.

WEDNESDAY 7 OCT — ROSTER HOLESubject: Roster hole Thursday*INBOUND SHAPE

I cannot do the door on Thursday. Can you find someone?

PASTE

Thursday door stays on the printed roster until 6 pm today. If no name is on the sheet by then, the door is unmanned and parents enter by the side gate. I will not phone a list.

BAN: no emoji, no “just circling back”, no new address, no promise of a phone call you have not already made.

THURSDAY 8 OCT — BAPTISM ENQUIRYSubject: Baptism enquiry*INBOUND SHAPE

We would like the baby baptised next month. What do we do?

PASTE

The next step is one form on the office clipboard, not a date. Collect it Sunday, return it the following Sunday. No date is held until the form is back.

BAN: no emoji, no “just circling back”, no new address, no promise of a phone call you have not already made.

FRIDAY 9 OCT — LOST JUMPERSubject: Lost jumper*INBOUND SHAPE

Has anyone handed in a navy jumper, size 6?

PASTE

The lost box is the crate under the notice board. It is open until 12:30 Sunday. If it is not in the crate, it is not in the office.

BAN: no emoji, no “just circling back”, no new address, no promise of a phone call you have not already made.

SATURDAY 10 OCT — HALL KEYSubject: Hall key*INBOUND SHAPE

Can I collect the hall key this afternoon for the family lunch?

PASTE

The key leaves the hook only with the sexton, and not on Saturday. Book the hall on the sheet by the office door and collect the key Sunday after the service.

BAN: no emoji, no “just circling back”, no new address, no promise of a phone call you have not already made.

SUNDAY 11 OCT — PRAYER SLIPSubject: Prayer slip*INBOUND SHAPE

Please pray for my mother. She went into hospital last night. Do not say her name.

PASTE

Received. She will be named only as a mother in hospital. If you want a visit, write a phone number on the same slip and leave it in the office box before you leave today.

BAN: no emoji, no “just circling back”, no new address, no promise of a phone call you have not already made.

SUNDAY PROMPTPaste this once. Do not invent a product.

Write Parish Reply Bench cards for the next Monday–Sunday for Helen, 52, church office volunteer. Seven inbound shapes only: late pickup, allergy, roster hole, baptism enquiry, lost property, hall key, unnamed prayer. Each card has a subject under six words, an inbound shape, a paste reply of four lines or fewer, and a ban. Replies come from the shared desk, never from Helen’s name. If a note does not match a shape, the card says NONE. Do not create a Whop listing. Do not add a new object, a new buyer, or a candle. Output the seven cards and a first-hour instruction for whichever day is today.

Whop copy, for when the file is attached
